IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Supporting, Engaging & Empowering our Community

Welcome to another edition of In the Spotlight, keeping you connected with what's happening at the Denmark Community Resource Centre and across our wonderful community.

We're looking back on the wonderful Wear, Share, Repeat event, which brought the community together for a day all about giving pre-loved clothing a new life. With plenty of bargains to be found, sewing and mending support, the Soup Station, Ben's Coffee Van and lots of friendly faces, it was fantastic to see so many people getting involved and embracing a more sustainable way to shop.

We also have important information further inside this edition about the $100 Fuel Support Payment, including how to claim and where you can get assistance if you need a hand with the process.

Our Community Bus monthly outing crew have also been on the road again, this time heading to Albany for an Op Shop Adventure!

The group managed to visit an impressive six op shops, along with Lush Garden Centre and a little grocery shopping, before enjoying lunch at the Premier Hotel. A big thank you to our wonderful volunteer driver, Don, for making another great day out possible.

A warm welcome to Reverend Nicky Latham and her husband John to our Great Southern community.

Nicky was officially welcomed to the Anglican Parish of Denmark-Walpole over the weekend, with Petra & Leanne attending the service on behalf of the Denmark Community Resource Centre.

We wish Nicky and John all the very best as they settle into our wonderful community.

You'll find the full articles and more information on all of these stories further inside this edition of The Guide.

WEAR, SHARE, REPEAT

A Huge Success!

One enthusiastic shopper even declared:
“Oh my gosh, this is better than a
Myer Boxing Day sale!”
We’ll happily take that as a compliment!

Wow – what an incredible day for our Denmark community!
Our Wear, Share, Repeat pop-up clothing market was a fantastic success, bringing together hundreds of pre-loved items, enthusiastic bargain hunters, generous stallholders and an amazing team of volunteers.

The atmosphere throughout the day was fun, welcoming and full of community spirit. Hundreds of dollars were made by stallholders, while hundreds of clothing items found new homes, keeping perfectly good clothes in circulation and out of landfill.

And judging by the feedback, Denmark is certainly keen for more!

Giving Pre-Loved Clothes Another Life. One of the most special outcomes of the day was knowing that even the clothing that didn't sell would continue to make a difference.

Remaining items were donated to the Homeless Project's Mega Market Sale at the Scout Hall, giving them another opportunity to be purchased, reused and help support an important local initiative. Another collection of donated clothing and shoes is travelling much further afield. A generous community member collected a box of items to take with her to South Africa, where there is a great need for clothing and footwear. She has even paid for additional luggage so she can take the donations with her. It was a wonderful reminder of just how far a simple act of sharing can reach.

COMMUNITY AT THE HEART OF IT

Events like this simply don't happen without people willing to get involved.

A huge thank you to every volunteer who helped the event run so smoothly, our stallholders who brought along their pre-loved treasures, and everyone who came through the doors, grabbed a bargain and supported the day.

There was also plenty of interest in the work of the Denmark WA Town Team, with community members asking how they could become involved as community connectors and Denmark does.

The enthusiasm, feedback and requests for another pop-up market have certainly been heard – and we can't wait to see what comes next.

Whether you'd like to volunteer, become a stallholder, donate, shop or simply come along and enjoy the fun, there are plenty of ways to get involved in future community initiatives.

With exciting projects ahead for Denmark, this event was a beautiful example of what can happen when our community comes together.

Less waste. More sharing. More connection.

Stay tuned – we have a feeling Wear, Share, Repeat will be back!

A WARM WELCOME TO REVEREND NICKY LATHAM

The Denmark Community Resource Centre would like to extend a very warm welcome to Reverend Nicky Latham and her husband, John, to the Great Southern community.

Our Manager, Petra and staff member Leanne were delighted to attend Reverend Nicky's Welcome Service over the weekend of 15 August at the Anglican Parish of Denmark-Walpole, joining members of the parish and wider community to mark this special occasion.

We would also like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank the Anglican Parish of Denmark-Walpole for their ongoing support of the Denmark Community Resource Centre and the wider community.

Strong local connections and partnerships like these play such an important role in supporting our region. Welcome to the Great Southern, Nicky and John! We hope you feel right at home in our wonderful corner of the world.

COMMUNITY BUS ADVENTURES: ALBANY

Our latest community outing to Albany was a fantastic day out, with the group managing to visit an impressive amount of Op shops, along with a wander through Lush Garden Centre and a little grocery shopping before heading home.

The group enjoyed lunch at the Premier Hotel, with great feedback on both the food and value for money. There are already plenty of ideas flowing for future adventures, including Walpole, Torbay, the Chocolate Lounge and Mt Barker for a bakery visit and picnic.

A big thank you to our wonderful volunteer driver, Don, for making another enjoyable day out possible! Want to join our list of regulars?

Call us on 9848 2842

Stay tuned – our next Seniors Out & About adventure will be announced soon!

Asked to make your property offer online? Here's what you need to know

You may not know this, but when you buy a home through an offer and acceptance, it's called a 'private treaty sale'. It's how most people like to buy and sell property in Western Australia, but increasingly, buyers are being asked to submit offers through online platforms rather than by email or face-to-face with the selling agent.

While the technology may be new for making an offer, it's important to remember the rules haven't changed.

In a private treaty sale, the seller decides whether to accept an offer, reject it or negotiate. Licensed real estate and selling agents can also tell buyers there are competing offers and invite them to submit their best offer. Online platforms simply provide another way of managing that process.

After attending a home open you may be invited to submit your offer online. Depending on the platform the agent is using, you could be told whether your offer is higher or lower than others. You might be concerned this seems like an auction that will create a bidding war, but really it is no different to an agent advising you of where your offer sits among others. In fact, using an online platform could be more transparent as the agent is under no obligation to tell you where your offer sits in relation to others.

While this process feels more competitive, don't get caught up trying to outbid everyone else and blow your budget. Before making an offer, decide what the property is worth to you, consider your budget carefully and stick to the maximum price you're comfortable paying.

Remember, the highest offer isn't always the one a seller accepts. Settlement dates, finance conditions and other contract terms can also influence a seller's decision.

You might be concerned that not all the offers you're seeing are from genuine buyers and maybe it's a tactic to push the price up. Under WA's real estate laws, agents must act honestly and not mislead or deceive anyone in negotiations. They should also take reasonable steps to satisfy themselves that all offers are genuine.

When you make an offer via these online platforms, you are generally submitting a signed Offer and Acceptance contract, which carries legal obligations if accepted by the seller.

Make sure you understand these legal implications and don't make offers you are not prepared to honour.

If you're unsure of how the online sales process will work, ask the selling agent to explain.

Whether your offer is submitted online or on paper, the fundamentals of buying property remain the same.
