Community Hub & Fire Truck Trail
Saturday 31st October 2026 - 9am to 1pm
Location: Strickland Street

Help Build a More Resilient Community

Does your organisation help people prepare for, respond to, recover from, or stay resilient during emergencies? Join us as an exhibitor in the Community Hub during the popular Fire Truck Trail and connect with hundreds of local residents and visitors who want to learn more about staying safe and supporting each other during emergencies.

Why Get Involved?

This nationally recognised event attracts more than 1,000 community members across the weekend and brings together emergency services, volunteer groups, community organisations and local agencies.

Your stall is an opportunity to:

- Showcase the support and services you provide
- Share practical information and resources
- Engage directly with local families and visitors
- Recruit volunteers and new members
- Build relationships with other organisations
- Help people understand their role before, during and after an emergency

Make Your Stall Interactive

We encourage exhibitors to create an engaging experience for attendees. Consider:

- Hands-on activities and demonstrations
- Competitions or prize draws
- Educational displays
- Giveaways and promotional items
- Activities for children and families

The more interactive your display, the more impact you'll have.

Did You Know?

Denmark is one of Western Australia's most bushfire-prone communities, with forests surrounding many homes, businesses and visitor areas.

Being prepared isn't just an individual responsibility. It takes the whole community working together.

To register your interest or discuss your stall idea, contact:

Petra Thompson on 98482842 or manager@denmarkcrc.com.au Murray Brooker on 0429 094 136 Em Harper on 0417 091 812.

Denmark Bushfire Ready Outcomes

Yes! We measure our results. This is just some of the data we have sourced from Shire of Denmark and DFES. Thank you for contributing to this success, we couldn't do it without you!

BEYOND THE DIAGNOSIS

A live online conversation for anyone who loves, knows or supports a child with additional needs and wants to better understand how to support them and their family.

There is so much that families of children with additional needs carry. And there are so many people around them who genuinely want to help and be there, but don't always know how. This is a space to help bridge the gap that can sometimes feel so wide between the families living this reality and those who want to better understand it. Together, we'll have an honest conversation about what support can feel like for the child and their family, what genuinely helps and what sometimes doesn't.
