

FREE LIVE ONE-DAY IMMERSIVE

The Map

*One day. One truth.
One clear next step.*

If you have done the work but still feel like something is off, it may be time to read what your life has been trying to tell you.

This intimate live immersive brings the Life As Medicine framework into real life. Through simple somatic work and honest enquiry, you will learn to read the patterns, pain points, and recurring themes in your life as a map. You will leave with one clear, grounded next step.
